LIBERTY STATION

CALL FOR ARTISTS

Two New Opportunities for Installations at the Station
Public Art Projects at ARTS DISTRICT Liberty Station

San Diego, September 6, 2018 – A new wave of exciting public art installations at ARTS DISTRICT Liberty Station is helping transform the uniform, monochromatic, rigid former military buildings into a culturally vibrant arts and culture destination.

The NTC Foundation, which oversees the development and operation of 26 buildings at ARTS DISTRICT Liberty Station, recently oversaw the funding and installation of six new projects as part of its growing Installations at the Station program.

Installations at the Station is an ongoing program of the NTC Foundation and there are currently many installations already on display throughout the ARTS DISTRICT. To view the most recently funded and installed installations, visit <https://ntcfoundation.org/art-in-public-places/>

ARTS DISTRICT Liberty Station is seeking RFP's from the artists to "illuminate the season" through the Holiday Light Art Installations and RFQ's from artists for the next round of 2019 grants to enhance their existing Installations at the Station program.

HOLIDAY LIGHT ART INSTALLATION OPPORTUNITY

ARTS DISTRICT Liberty Station is seeking proposals from qualified Artists to "illuminate the season" through the Holiday Light Art Installation starting in November 2018 through the holiday season. This will be the fourth annual holiday installation funded by the Foundation to help Salute the Season.

Proposals contracted up to $3,500 will be awarded.

SUBMITTAL DEADLINE:            Tuesday September 25, 2018, 5 pm

2019 INSTALLATIONS AT THE STATION OPPORTUNITY

The Foundation is seeking RFQ's from qualified Artists or Teams of Artists to create temporary, site-specific outdoor installations to continue the transformation of the historic 100-acre former Naval Training Center site into a thriving arts and culture district for the community.

Artists are encouraged to use new disciplines and technology reflective of the region, and focus on contemporary issues to encourage artists to create pieces that encourage audience participation. Funded activities could include - but are not limited to- outdoor sculpture, lighting projects, digital art, video art, public events or auditory artworks.

All projects require a Community Engagement component that the artist initiates with the assistance of the NTC Foundation staff. The Foundation encourages all artists from those emerging in their career to those with a long history of experience to apply. Partnerships with resident ARTS DISTRICT nonprofits, artists or businesses are encouraged but are not required.

Proposals contracted between $3,500 - $15,000 will be awarded with a goal of up to 5 projects selected per year, starting in 2019. The works can be a short term installation or on display for several years.

SUBMITTAL DEADLINE:                    October 24, 2018

OPPORTUNITIES TO LEARN MORE:

Artist Forums will be held with staff to answer questions and provide opportunities to tour the ARTS DISTRICT:

Thursday, September 27, 5-6:30 pm & Wednesday, October 3, 5-6:30 pm
