

WINTER IS WAY COOL AT THE ARTS DISTRICT AT LIBERTY STATION

Skate, Create, Celebrate!

“Holiday Gifts with a Creative Twist” Supports Local Artists

San Diego – October 7, 2015 - During the holiday season, The Arts District at Liberty Station comes alive with opportunities to celebrate creatively! Organizers have ensured that Winter will be Way Cool this year with a wide range of activities, festivities, shopping, dining...and ice skating!

Fantasy on Ice, benefiting Rady Children’s Hospital, has found a new permanent home at in the historic heart of Liberty Station. After a festive skate, shoppers are encouraged to visit the over 80 artists, galleries, museums, and local retailers for Holiday Gifts with a Creative Twist. In 16 historic buildings, locally-made goods come to life in unique works of art, handmade jewelry and specialty items to give gifts that support our community.

To enhance the gift buying experience, visitors can take a class, dine at one of the unique Liberty Station restaurants or just enjoy the over 30 acres of grassy promenades and outdoor plazas.

Enhanced FREE Friday Night Liberty Open Houses (November 5 and December 4, 5-9 pm) will be a chance to make holiday shopping an art-filled adventure as galleries and studios will be open late and the campus will come alive with music and entertainment.
